Code of Conduct

6. Ask The Right Questions

"If you are fed up of losing, then learn how to win" which means being honest with yourself and ask yourself why you are not getting the results you want.

Then watch the people who get what you want, and ask what they do differently to you, in order for you to get it right. 'Some people would rather win the argument, than be right' ask the right questions and be humble enough to listen.
